Dear Members of the Loyola College Community,

Welcome back to Trinity term and the commencement of Term 2. I hope that everyone enjoyed the Easter break. Since the last newsletter there have been many events taking place involving students, staff and families as well as members of the wider community and I am pleased to share these with you in this newsletter.

Autumn Sounds Concert
This was held in the final week of last term and as usual students provided a wonderful evening of outdoor entertainment. I thank Mr Brown our Music Program Coordinator, all the Music staff and the students who presented.

Performing Arts Centre Petition
I would like to thank the many families who signed the online petition in support of increasing the after school access and frequency of use of the new Performing Arts Centre. Unfortunately, the Banyule Council rejected our request and we are consequently seeking legal advice to challenge the Council’s decision in the hope that common sense will eventually prevail.

In the meantime, the construction of the new facility is progressing well and the building has certainly taken shape. The remainder of the cypress trees on Bungay Street were removed over the holiday period. An arborist had declared that the trees were diseased and had reached the end of their life span. The street landscape is looking rather bare at present but planned landscaping will see new trees and garden areas being planted along the boundary fence line as the construction nears completion.

We are currently selling seats in the auditorium as a fundraiser and I encourage every family to consider purchasing one seat. Information about this is available elsewhere in this newsletter.

Academic Conversations
The academic conversations with subject teachers were held this week for all families and attendance was at a very high level. In response to the feedback from parents and staff this format was included as part of the hybrid model to be used this year for Parent/Student/Teacher conversations. I hope the students and their families will act on goals set and advice given so as to improve the student learning outcomes by the end of this semester.

Vocations Week
This week we had many visitors from Religious Congregations speaking to our students about considering a religious vocation in the future. It was wonderful to hear these men and women speak about how they responded to God’s call to serve others in Church ministry. It is my hope that some of our students will consider this as their chosen pathway in life as the Church needs many hands... to carry our God’ work in the world. I thank Sr Nelia Llanto SJGS for overseeing the organisation of the week.

ANZAC Day Commemoration
On 21 April a wonderful ANZAC Remembrance Ceremony was held with the participation of officers and soldiers from the Simpson Barracks in Macleod. A large number of our own students who are cadets also participated. Also present was Parish Priest, Fr Michael O’Connell of St Martin’s who led the school community in prayer. Jenny Macklin MP was also present as were representatives of the RSL. My thanks to Mr Simpson, Deputy Principal Administration and Professional Development who oversaw the organisation of this important event. Having recently revisited the Somme in Northern France with our French students where many Australians lost their lives in the WW1, I again appreciated the great sacrifices made by many to ensure our freedom.

France and Italy Tours Return
I had the privilege of spending time overseas with both our language groups over the holiday period and am delighted to report that our students were wonderful ambassadors for Loyola College. We were warmly welcomed by both our sister schools the IPSSAR Maffioli in Castelfranco, Italy and St Jean Baptiste de La Salle in Avignon, France. I thank the students for their high level of cooperation and the staff Mrs Mascia, Mr Chiarato and Mrs Galati who accompanied the Italian language tour and Mrs Stylli and Ms Grills who accompanied the French language tour.

Enrolment offers
On Friday of this week the first round offers for Year 7, 2017 will be posted to successful families. All applicants will receive a letter and if unsuccessful will be placed on a waiting list unless otherwise notified. I hope that those families who have been successful will value the opportunity of a place here at Loyola and actively contribute to the life of Loyola as they commence their association with the College.

House Athletics
The College House Athletics Carnival was held on Thursday 14 April and was again another successful event. The weather was pleasant and there was a very high level of student participation and school spirit on the day. I thank Mr Baxter for overseeing the organisation of the day. Congratulations to Chisholm House on winning this year’s carnival.

Student Dress Code
It is timely to remind students that the winter uniform requirements outline the need for all students in day uniform to wear their blazer to and from the College and anywhere in public where they are in their College winter uniform.

I ask for the support and cooperation of all families with regard to this matter.

Staffing Matters
We welcome the following staff to the College:
Mr Toscano who will join the Counselling team in Student Services.
Ms Rogers and Ms Hazar who will be replacing staff on Long Service Leave.
We welcome back Mr O’Keefe who will be overseeing the Co Curriculum program while Mrs Lawrence is on leave.

Condolences
We extend our deepest sympathy to:
Mrs D’Agostino on the recent passing of her father.
Mrs Trainor on the recent passing of her mother.
Mia Paolacci (8 MKMS) and Jack Paolacci (11MEMK) on the recent passing of their mother.

I ask that you keep these families in your prayers at this time of loss.

Easter Blessings
The Church is now in full celebration of the Easter period. There is much happening around the world that is leading us to feel somewhat unsettled. In this year of Mercy may we all acknowledge the Risen Christ at work in our lives and in our world and meet Him in prayer and reflection so that we too may become Easter people of hope.

I wish all a very successful start to the term ahead.

Passion Play
The Year 12 Faith and Drama class presented a passion play at the commencement of our final term one assembly as the Easter reflection. This play is an eagerly anticipated annual event with each Year 12 group interpreting the sacred story in their own way. The students assisted the whole College in deepening their appreciation of the true meaning of Passion Week and the Easter season. My thanks to Mrs Boyle for her wonderful work with this class.

Mass of St Patrick Catholic Education Week 2016
Each year, around the feast of St Patrick, the patron saint of the Archdiocese of Melbourne, all the Catholic schools send representatives to the Cathedral to join together in a mass celebrated by the Archbishop. Archbishop Hart whose homily integrated the story of St Patrick and Catholic Education Week’s theme ‘Be the Face of Mercy’.
Some extracts.
… St Patrick was chosen as Melbourne’s patron because ‘Jesus meant everything to him.’ ….. ‘It is the only way we will be happy. Saint Patrick wrote, “Christ is all-important. It is really Jesus who teaches us.” Patrick knew that he had been chosen by God and sent to bring the Irish people back to God.’
… ‘Listen carefully to this great friend of God,’ ‘What is God asking me? We can even have in our mind the little prayer, “Speak, Lord, your servant is listening. You have the words of life forever.” Patrick was attractive. People flocked to follow him because he showed Jesus to people.

‘The great challenge for you and for me – 1) is to be close to Jesus and faithful to prayer every day of our life, 2) to ask Jesus to show us what we can do for him and for people. Maybe a boy will hear Jesus saying, “Come, follow me” and be a priest. A girl will see her teachers or those who look after people and will say “yes” to helping others to know Jesus. Whoever we are, Jesus has a special plan for us. Saint Patrick shows us that the only way to be truly happy is to follow Jesus.’

Loyola had further special involvement with our College Captains chosen to lead the entry procession carrying the Catholic Education Melbourne banner and our choir together with students from Our Lady of Sion College, Box Hill and Thomas Carr College, Tarneit formed the mass choir “. One of the highlights was the commencement of the celebration with the singing of ‘Misericordes Sicut Pater’, the hymn for the Jubilee Year of Mercy written by Paul Inwood (music) and Eugenio Costa SJ.
Thanks to all students who participated and for the work of Mrs Gemma Hedger, Mrs Suzanne Treglia and Miss Erin Towns for their roles in preparing the students.
Project Compassion – Thank you
The major fundraising day for Project Compassion was Harmony Day. This year over $9,500 was raised. Part of the celebration included the Caritas Farmyard as a reminder to our students that some of the money they raised goes to purchasing livestock that can assist in supporting a sustainable lifestyle. Special thanks to Mr Keegan’s Year 12 Faith and the Third World for organising the most successful Caritas fundraiser in the College’s history.

Magis Formation Day
The Magis club runs Friday lunchtime activities for students. It’s a place where students can come together at the end of the week, share some food and fun, and build community. Magis also has a focus on individual spiritual development and being people for others through teamwork, hospitality and fundraising.
Sr Nelia and Miss Chamoun took the group to Villa Maria Aged care and then to the Pastorelle Sisters convent. Students attended mass with the Villa Maria residents and then participated in a reflection afternoon.

Vocation Awareness Week 2016
Loyola College community had the great privilege and opportunity to celebrate Vocation Awareness Week that commenced on April 18 to April 22 2016. The event, occurred after the Solemnity of the Feast of Jesus Good Shepherd Sunday, will encompass events such as vocation talks and sharing of personal stories in the classroom by priests and religion from diocesan and religious congregations and also Mass and Adorations for the intention of promoting vocations to the young people. The different activities will hopefully help the students gain the knowledge and mindfulness of how the Good Shepherd has always been an example of responding to such a noble vocation of laying down ones life and dieing for the love of his flock – the church.

There will be also panel discussion from the Melbourne Archdiocesan Vocation Team representing the different states of life: single, priesthood, religious and marriage. There is so much appreciation for all the guests who will visit the college to give enlightenment of how the Lord’s call is always at work in the hearts of each one. The call to love, serve and praise in the different commitments will be also reinforced by the vocation exhibits that the guests devotedly put up during the weekend for the perusal of the loyola community.

We welcome and are thankful for the presence of Brother. Ian Crib, Jesuits and two scholastics; Fr. Tony Cox, SSC; Sr.
Joanna, FSP, Sr. Maggie, FSP; Srs Nelia and Ignacia, Pastorelle Sisters; Fr. Dominic Murphy, Dominican Priest; Srs. Jiji, Majetka and companions, Claretian Sisters; Srs Erin and Velonica, Little Sisters of the Poor; Sr. Anna, Agustinian Sister; Seminarian Marcus Goulding, Corpus Christi Seminary; Sr. Maureen, FCJ; Carmelite Sisters; Sr. Melanie and companion, MGL; Srs Brigid and Karen, Passionist Sisters; Fr. Francis Denton, Diocesan; Fr. Nick Pearce, Diocesan; Sr. Chielo, Divine Zeal Sister. Gratitude also to the Diocesan team and all those freinds and colleagues who supported the preparations and planning of the week.

Pope Francis said on the occasion of the 53rd World Day of Prayer for Vocations: “It is my great hope that, during the course of this Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy, all the baptized may experience the joy of belonging to the Church and rediscover that the Christian vocation, just like every particular vocation, is born from within the People of God, and is a gift of divine mercy. The Church is the house of mercy, and it is the “soil” where vocations take root, mature and bear fruit.

For this reason, on the occasion of the 53rd World Day of Prayer for Vocations, I invite all of you to reflect upon the apostolic community, and to give thanks for the role of the community in each person’s vocational journey. In the Bull of Induction for the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy, I recalled the words of the venerable Saint Bede, describing the call of Saint Matthew: “Miserando atque eligendo” (Misericordiae Vultus, 8). The Lord’s merciful action forgives our sins and opens us to the new life which takes shape in the call to discipleship and mission.

Each vocation in the Church has its origin in the compassionate gaze of Jesus. Conversion and vocation are two sides of the same coin, and continually remain interconnected throughout the whole of the missionary disciple’s life.

On this day dedicated to prayer for vocations, I urge all the faithful to assume their responsibility for the care and discernment of vocations. When the Apostles sought someone to take the place of Judas Iscariot, Saint Peter brought together one hundred and twenty of the brethren (cf. Acts 1:15); and in order to choose seven deacons, a group of disciples was gathered (cf. 6:2). Saint Paul gave Titus specific criteria for the selection of presbyters (cf. Titus 1:5-9). Still today, the Christian community is always present in the discernment of vocations, in their formation and in their perseveration (cf. Apost. Ex. Evangelii Gaudium, 107). "O Jesus eternal Shepherd of our souls, send good labourers into your vineyard.'

Christian Services Week
During Activities Week in March, our Year 11 students volunteer at a diverse range of agencies including aged care, disabilities, environment and welfare. This is an experience that opens their eyes to the difficult realities of people who are marginalised. Danielle Akuei and Shanice Williams volunteered at the Brigidine Asylum Seekers Project (BASP) in Albert Park. Their reflections help us to understand more about the daily challenges of asylum seekers in our community:

Danielle Akuei
(11 CPJK)

Christian Services Week Reflection
The main aim of the Brigidine Asylum Seeker Project is to provide advocacy for the rights of asylum seekers and educate others about the challenges faced by asylum seekers. They provide all kinds of support such as English tutoring, material, financial support and assistance with writing a resume. Shanice and I really felt how strongly they live by their motto which is "strength and kindness." Staff and volunteers were always optimistic, kind and put into practice their belief that as Australians we should be helping our fellow brothers and sisters, just as Jesus told us to "love one another".

Whilst working with this organisation we were lucky enough to visit the families, help deliver food, and speak to the volunteers. Our most eye-opening experience was going to the Immigration Detention Centre in Broadmeadows. We knew that visiting the detainees was going to be a sorrowful moment and it was! Most of the detainees there were separated from their families and they keenly felt the isolation of being separated from community support and unable to improve their ability to learn English and seek employment. They felt like they were treated as "criminals."

Their chances of developing mental health problems, particularly depression, is high. Even though they are going through the toughest times of their life, every single one of them smiled and spoke to us. It showed us that they have hope in life and are not giving up!

Through our placement we developed a clear understanding of how asylum seeker families are trying to cope with the impact of harsh government policies towards them. Most importantly the Coordinators, Libby Saunders and Sr Brigid Arthur CSB and all the hard working volunteers at the Centre taught us that everyone is equal in rights and dignity, regardless of ethnicity, race, citizenship or immigration status and every human should have the right to live in a country that is accepting and offers support to those who are vulnerable.

We would like to thank everyone at the Centre that made us feel welcome from day one. It was one of the best experiences and we highly recommend it to the students for next year.

Full School Assembly ~ ANZAC Day Commemoration Ceremony

Our ANZAC Day Commemoration ceremony was conducted yesterday Thursday 21 April during Period 4. It was wonderful to have the support of Simpson Barracks, Macleod to provide the Catafalque Party and we were also joined by the Honourable Jenny Macklin MP, Federal Member of Jaga Jaga, members of Watsonia RSL and Colonel Chris Rule (father of Madison (10 KCGS) who delivered the most wonderful reflection on his service. We also were most impressed by our Army and Air Force Cadets who played such a big role in the ceremony.

Special thanks to Colonel Rule for all he did for supporting this day and for both the RSL and Simpson Barracks for continuing to forge strong relationships with our College.

Full School Assembly – Tuesday April 26

We have a Full School Assembly on Tuesday 26 April after period 2 (30 minutes). These assemblies are so important in celebrating the success of the College. We will be highlighting the recent International Tours we have had and the ACS Athletics Squad.

LEXSA

Our Loyola Ex Students associated provides us with an important link for our ex-students to maintain contact with the College. As an ex-student of Loyola I know the importance of this. LEXSA plays such a strong community role. We need the involvement of more ex-students and we are currently recruiting those that can support us by joining the committee, being part of an event sub-committee or supporting us in other ways. The LEXSA AGM is held on April 26 at 7:15pm at the College. If you have an interest in playing a bigger role in LEXSA or if you have any ideas then please contact me on simpsons@loyola.vic.edu.au

Facebook Page

We have officially launched our Loyola College Facebook page which is another avenue to communicate with our families. We will continue with all other avenues of communication so this is another wonderful way we can share our success, advise of upcoming events and communicate with our parents, students, staff, ex staff and ex-students.

Amazingly the page has already had almost 800 likes with a weekly post engagement of around 10,000. Please join us on Facebook by using our Loyola College Watsonia Link which is www.facebook.com/loyolacollegecatholic

Archives are those records that have been selected for ongoing retention as a record of the daily activities of organisations and individuals. These records could be selected because they are essential for understanding the history of an organisation or because they document the development of a community. Archives will inform future generations of the actions taken today. Collectively these records form the ‘story’ of an organisation providing evidence of heritage and identity as a school.

Loyola College Archives was established in 2006 to acquire, organize and preserve items related to the cultural heritage of the College. Records of aspirations, successes and experiences of past and present generations of Loyola College are selected for permanent preservation based on their enduring cultural and historical significance.

Some of the items held by the Loyola College Archives include photographs, newspaper cuttings about the College, students and staff (past and present), sports programs, concert/drama programs, Mass booklets, flyers, prospectus, uniforms, trophies, banners, student planners, newsletters – in fact anything that documents the story of Loyola College since its planning began in the late 1970s.

The Collection also houses material about the history of Old Loyola, documenting the construction of the building in the early 1930s, the opening on 16 December 1934 and its use as a Novitiate and House of Studies and Retreat until 1974.

The Student Personal Development Program (SPD) is age-appropriate and sequential. The underpinning framework of Positive Education through an Ignatian Lens, promotes and enhances wellbeing programs of positive emotion, relationships, accomplishment, engagement, meaning, physical health and responsible behaviours.

The program is facilitated at the junior year levels by Mr Michael Gowan and at the senior levels by Ms Shannon Staub. It is overseen by Mrs Anna Salmic.

Students attend one timetabled Personal Development class each fortnight in a variety of settings and group sizes, from whole year level to individual classes. At times, external presenters visit the College to speak with students about individual areas of expertise; other times, sessions are facilitated by the classroom teacher. The Loyola College Personal Development program offers excellent opportunity to incorporate the local community in the life of the College, and in doing so, impart skills and knowledge beyond the boundaries of curriculum in the core and elective subjects. The program aims to educate students for both the ‘now’ and life beyond the College.

Topics covered in Term One in the Personal Development Program included the following:

Year 7: Social skills and belonging, gratitude and camp preparation

Year 8: Teamwork, friendship, emotions

Year 9: Respectful relationships, creating an environment for success

Year 10: Positive psychology introduction, Work experience information, and maximising employment opportunities

Year 11: Positive psychology introduction, positive body image and careers information on future job markets and practical advice on searching for part-time employment

Year 12: Positive psychology introduction, the importance of sleep and creating good study and exam preparation habits

FROM THE MCAULEY HOUSE CAPTAINS

Samantha Klimovski (12 ARMB) &
Tommy Ceraso (12 ARAS)

McAuley House is sponsored by St Francis of Assisi Parish, Millpark, in which all students and teachers pride themselves on reflecting the teachings of Katherine McAuley, the House patron.

As a House, we have focused on pursuing the same objectives as Katherine- devoting our lives to the service of the poor, the sick and the uneducated. Recently, McAuley House has changed its House charity to McAuley services for Women. Seeking to create homes, employment, and protection for women and children that may be suffering domestic violence.

Further by following the House motto “Do Some Lasting Good” allows us, the students of McAuley to enrich the lives of those who do not share our good fortune.

FROM THE XAVIER HOUSE CAPTAINS

Aisling O’Mahony (12 XMCU) &
Edward Mason (12 XMAC)

Term 1 was an awfully busy term for Xavier House, along with all the other Houses. Swimming carnival was the first event of the year, proving to be quite a challenge for the House, placing equal 4th; however, the day turned out to be very enjoyable and all the students performed really well on the day.

House Eisteddfod saw a number of students rising to the challenge of performing in front of a large audience, and having fun while rocking out to a few Michael Jackson hits as we performed “this is it” a story about the king of pop’s turbulent life. Although we fell short of 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and even 5th place we put on an entertaining performance and everyone had heaps of fun on the night.

The next hurdle, Athletics carnival swiftly approached us and turned out to be a great day for all the Xavier students, despite our 6th placing.

Xavier House has been full of new initiatives and ideas, as our theme for the year is positivity and positive psychology. Upstairs A has been covered in new positive quotes every week and the House committee is working on many more surprises to come.

So to conclude we would like to leave you with the following: "every day may not be good, but there is something good in every day".

Academic Conversations
Students will have evaluated Term One in the recent Academic Conversations with their Companions. Please continue the discussion at home with your child about their learning on a regular basis. Not only does this affirm them in their efforts but also provides them more opportunities to articulate what is working and not working for them. At this stage of the year, this is more important than the final grades.

Subject Specific Interviews Thursday April 21
Hopefully you had a chance to talk to your child’s teachers on the night. If for any reason you were not able to meet with a Subject Teacher please contact them either by email or phone. It would be worthwhile having a further follow up discussion with your child so that they are also clear about the criteria that they are being assessed against, but also these are strategies which will assist with their improvement.

Once again I invite parents and guardians to provide any feedback about their experiences of recent student academic conversation and Subject Specific Interviews (polas@loyola.vic.edu.au).

2015 Semester Two Highest Achievers
At our recent Full School Assembly, we recognized the 2015 Semester Two Highest Achievers. Each student was recognized on stage and presented with a Principal’s Certificate. The criteria to be considered as one of the highest achievers is based on the number of Gold Merits awarded in Semester Two. Congratulations to the following students who were presented with this certificate:

Cyber Safety Part 3: Cyberbullying
Dear parents/guardians, if you are aware of your child’s online activities and you provide guidance as they navigate their online world, studies have shown that your child is far less likely to be involved in risky online behaviour.
Note this: The Internet offers users an invaluable opportunity, but also bestows on users an enormous responsibility.

In this edition we'll be looking at Cyberbullying, focussing on two aspects.

Aspect 1: True story – this could be your daughter, or son

It was the start of the school year and students were keen to catch up with their friends and talk about what they did over the holidays. It was also an opportunity to make new friends. Two particular Year 11 girls became friends and started hanging out together, and became quite close. So trusting did they become of each other that they revealed to each other their email and Facebook passwords. After a while, however, their friendship cooled somewhat and they started spending more time with their other friends.

One morning one of the girls arrived at school only to find that certain students, some she knew and some she didn’t know, seemed to be looking at her strangely and whispering things about her to each other. Her usual friends started finding excuses for not spending time with her. She did not understand why this was happening. A short time later she went onto her Facebook and found, to her horror, that people, including her friends and even strangers, were posting hate messages directed to her. It was then she realised what had happened. The ex-best friend must have logged in as her on Facebook and posted some very personal stuff about her, some true and some lies, but all very personal details she would never have posted herself.

She also started getting hate emails and mobile phone texts, messages that made her feel very upset, very angry and even depressed. She changed her password. Eventually she confronted the girl about it, who in turn posted messages on her Facebook denying that she was the author of the offensive content. But the hate messages kept coming. She cancelled her Facebook, cancelled her mobile phone contract, but it was too late. The damage had been done. Most of her former friends now kept away from her. Only one or two remained, but things were never the same again.

Aspect 2: Cyberbullies, be warned: you may be prosecuted!

In recent years courts around the world, including Australia, have successfully prosecuted cyberbullies.

In Conclusion:

What can you do to prevent Cyberbullying?

1. If the abuse happens on a social networking website, use the ‘report abuse’ link to have offensive content removed.
components of healthy relationships and we have Mark Squirrel speaking about accomplishment. Mark has climbed Mt Everest, worked in the Australian Army in Special operations and continues work in humanitarian efforts in the middle east for the United Nations. We encourage our students to develop all their skills so they can best manage themselves as they progress to adulthood.

Indonesian Host families
It is with such joy that I thank all the families who hosted our visiting Indonesian students. The feedback received was very pleasing and their experience of Australia was a very positive one. I was told it was the first time they experienced what it was like to feel the wind almost blow them away … thanks to a rather chilly windy day on the Phillip Island Trip. A big special thanks to the following families: -
Collier    Lane
Collum    Marrazita
Davison    Meagher
Emmerson    Mitchell
Evans    O’Mahony

International House & Manresa Cottage
Are you moving house, renovating or expecting overseas guests and need somewhere to stay well …
Just inside Gate 4, on the corner of Bungay and Kenmare Streets sits our International House which is used for accommodation on a short term basis for both overseas visitors and members of our school and local community. Behind the Old Loyola building in the south western corner of the property, sits a quaint little Cottage that we also rent out. These rentals are ideal for family members or friends who have to attend a function or appointment in Melbourne and require an overnight stay or longer at a very reasonable price. Some of our families have extended family who live interstate and rent the cottage on a regular basis when paying a visit to Melbourne for 1 or 2 weeks. Loyola’s close proximity to shops and the train makes it ideal to be independent and yet close to relatives as well. Anyone interested in learning more should access www.loyola.vic.edu.au/information/accommodation. Or contact myself either by phone or email.

The Maytime Fair
The Maytime Fair is the major annual fundraiser in Victoria for the work of the Jesuit Mission and is supported by a vast array of friends and benefactors connected with schools, parishes and other communities in and beyond the state. The Fair is run by an Executive Committee of Victorian Friends of Jesuit Mission consisting of Jesuit Mission staff, Xavier College past and present parents, Xavier College current staff members and other supporters. Their main policy for the running of the Maytime Fair is that every stall and attraction donates 100% of its profit to the work of the Jesuit Mission. The Maytime fair consistently contributes over $100,000 each year for vital work in the developing world.

All of the funds raised from the Maytime Fair go directly to help people in disadvantaged countries including Cambodia, China, East Timor, India, Myanmar, Pakistan, Thailand and The Philippines and several in Africa.

Xavier College has been hosting the Maytime Fair for 65 years. Each year the College has been extremely generous in the provision of its grounds to host the event and its students and staff. This group oversees the organisation of bands and music played at the Fair and student stalls and activities and promotes involvement in the event amongst other schools in the area.

The Friends of Jesuit Mission are the champions of the event, running the stalls, gathering all the goodies on display, organizing the bands and the orchestras, preparing the food and rallying all their families and friends to attend.

The Fair will include amusements and rides for children of all ages as well as a variety of music, a huge array of food outlets and stalls offering car and wine raffles, plant stalls, a second hand book store, cakes and confectionary, stamps, coins and Vintage and lots more.

Please come to the Maytime Fair on Saturday May 7 and join in the fun to support vital work with the poor of the developing world.

Senior Grand Finals, March 23
Premiers: Senior Firsts Girls Soccer
Loyola 2 defeats Westbourne 0
Goals: Georgia Loizides, Own Goal
A great hard fought win by our girls, with an own goal in the first half and then a great strike by Georgia Loizides to give us a little breathing space mid-way through the second half.

ACS Premiership Team (Loyola’s first ever Senior Girls Soccer Premiership)

Season Summary: Ms Ann Marie Cairns – Deputy Principal Staff and Operations.
The pressure was mounting as the day drew closer; one more step, one more hurdle, one more battle before the team could hold the premiership cup. Finally, the day arrived, March 23, the last day of Term One. We were fortunate enough to have won enough games to grant us a home Grand Final. So we were on our own turf, with the support of staff and students; the excitement was building. The Squad included girls from years 10, 11 and 12 and the team Captain, Elyssa Zancan led the team through word and action on a weekly basis. The squad were committed to their soccer, but more importantly they proudly represented our College. School spirit was in abundance on final day, particularly when the final whistle blew and we were the winning team with a 2-0 score over our opponents; Westbourne. The Senior Girls were admirable in their execution on the day, but also the weeks preceding with their training, their uniforms and their attitude. It was a privilege to play a very small part in the success of this team and I look forward to continuing my involvement in ACS. Always remember; Soccer is the real Football.

Other Senior Grand Finals:
1sts Boys Table Tennis: Westbourne 15 def Loyola 1
2nds Boys Cricket: St.Michael's 9/72 def Loyola 71 (game determined on the last ball!)
2nds Girls Softball: Westbourne 10 def Loyola 7

Junior Summer Sport now takes a break until competition resumes in Term 4. We have experienced some excellent results with a number of our teams currently undefeated through 4 to 5 rounds of competition:
Year 9 Girls Softball, Year 9 Basketball B, Year 7 Cricket, Year 7 Basketball A & C, Year 7 Hockey, Year 7 Girls Softball, Year 7 Girls Soccer.

ACS Swimming Carnival

With the sounds of the Grand Prix practice going on in the background, the ACS Swimming Carnival was held at MSAC on Thursday March 17. The day saw Loyola achieve some excellent individual and team results. The overall team did an amazing job finishing a very competitive 5th and defeating Overnewton for the first time in many years, and also narrowly missing out on 4th place by only 24 points.

A massive thankyou to all the swimming squad members who gave their absolute all in every single event on the day. Also thankyou to the ACS Swimming Captains, Charlie Maree-Bice 12FECG, Conor Galvin 12XRFS, Aneesha Smarrelli 11AEGR, Jacob Zanatta 11FPTM, Ayla Bice 10FLTH, Jackson Car 10XRFS, Bridie Foster 9MMCB, Noah Dickson 9ASLS, Stella Caruana 7ASLS, Harrison Fell 8CLHO, Lyla Hussey 7XAFR and Nathan Macawili 7MFVE who displayed great leadership both at training and on the day. Thank you to Mr Leigh Cousins and Mr Joshua Lim-Cousins for all their efforts particularly with the morning training sessions. Finally, thank you to Mrs Lawrence, Mr Baxter and Miss Coward for all their behind the scenes efforts which allow big events like this to happen so smoothly.

Hopefully we can build on these positive results and improve further in 2017.

FROM JESUIT SOCIAL SERVICES

Fr Andrew Hamilton SJ

International Mother Earth Day - April 22

Not so long ago, talk of Mother Earth would have seemed to many Catholics to be a little pagan – something associated with nature worship, tree hugging, and even ecofeminism if they knew what that meant. In fact, the image of the earth as mother and wet nurse, first taken up by Greek poets and philosophers, was also much used by Christian writers. It pointed to how we human beings come both from God and from the material world.

In the first lines of his Encyclical Laudato Si, Pope Francis quotes St Francis’ Assisi’s use of the metaphor: “LAUDATO SI’, mi’ Signore” – “Praise be to you, my Lord”. In the words of this beautiful canticle, Saint Francis of Assisi reminds us that our common home is like a sister with whom we share our life and a beautiful mother who opens her arms to embrace us.

When we call the earth our mother we are reminded that as human beings we depend on the earth to exist and to flourish, just as we depend as persons on our mothers for our birth and nourishment. Our survival and our thriving depend on harmonious relationships between all the beings and processes that compose our natural world. The clearing of vegetation and the massive burning of fossil fuels in other continents, for example, will affect our climate and so the agriculture and living conditions that our children will inherit.

Our relationship to our human mothers is more than one of dependence. We are also called to love and to care for our mothers. They make a claim on our hearts as well as our minds. Pope Francis has insisted that this is also true of our relationship to our planet.

Mothers are not there to be used without a word of thanks. Neither should we see the natural world as something to be taken for granted and to be exploited for our short term interest. We are part of the world, and we should first of all look at it with wonder and with gratitude. We should value its diversity, its beauty and preserve its wilderness. And we should draw on its resources in a way that does not leave it exhausted and ailing.

Decent adults also have a care for their mothers when they grow frail and vulnerable. Our natural world is clearly stressed and vulnerable now, partly as a result of human carelessness. Pollution and global warming have largely human causes, and it is vital for us, whose descendants rely on us, to nurture the earth so as to mend the causes of its exhaustion.

To treat the earth as our mother means both taking personal responsibility for the footprint that we leave on the earth, and also insisting that our political leaders act boldly to protect our environment.

The vulnerable young people whom we serve at Jesuit Social Services need a nurturing human environment to thrive. Their future will also depend on our taking responsibility for our natural environment on which we all depend.
