Dear Members of the Loyola College Community,

We have experienced a very festive fortnight with many events and visitors to the College. I am delighted to share with you in this edition of the Ignatian the wonderful fortnight that we have all experienced.

Grandparents Mass
The annual Grandparents’ Mass was celebrated on Friday 22 July on the occasion of the feast of St Anne and St Joachim who tradition tells us were the grandparents of Jesus. Over 250 students and grandparents attended the Mass held in the St Ignatius Chapel. Fr Gerry Healy SJ celebrated the Mass which was followed by a morning tea held in the Function Room. I thank Mr Lynch, Sr Nelia, Mrs Alonso, Mr Simpson, Mrs Pritchard, canteen staff, Ms Chapman and the Hospitality students for their combined efforts in making the day so successful.

St Ignatius Feast Day
This year we were again truly blessed with the weather, although a cloudy day with the rain holding off until late afternoon, it was still pleasant for this year’s College Feast Day which commenced with a wonderful celebration of the Eucharist. I wish to thank Fr Robin Koning SJ, Socius to the Jesuit Provincial for being our Principal Celebrant and Fr Steven Rigo PP of St Mary’s Greensborough, Fr Terry Keane PP of St Francis Xavier Montmorency, Fr Michael O’Connell PP of St Martin’s Rosanna and Fr Gerry Healy SJ for concelebrating. The liturgy focussed on our theme this year Accompany, Serve, Praise. I commend the students on their reverence and participation during the Mass and I thank Mr Lynch for overseeing the organisation of the Mass as well as Mr Brown, Mrs Hedger, Mrs Treglia and Ms Towns for the beautiful music and choir.

The walkathon was very successful and enthusiastically embraced by the students with many students finding sponsors for their House charities. We hope to announce the final amount raised once all money has been collected.

The lunch (sponsored by the LPFA) and afternoon activities and rides including the traditional talent quest were appreciated by students and staff. I thank Mrs Treglia for organising the student Talent Quest and the staff and senior students who worked with her. I take this opportunity of also thanking Mr Simpson – Deputy Administration and Professional Development who chaired the St Ignatius Day Organisation Committee and oversaw the organisation of the whole day, the committee members for their contribution; and all who contributed to the success of this wonderful day of celebration.

LEXSA Reunion Sunday
Last Sunday 31 July, on the actual feast of St Ignatius, the College hosted our annual combined ex-student reunions to celebrate the classes of the 1st, 5th, 10th, 15th and 25th years of graduating from Loyola. It was wonderful to see so many former students and staff in attendance filling the Function Room to capacity. I thank our LEXSA secretary Mrs D’Angelis, our College Archivist Mrs Baron,
Mrs Alonso, our Community Liaison, Mrs Chang-Faux, our Community Development and Involvement Officer and the LEXSA committee for organising the day.

Transition Information Evening
The annual transition evening was very well attended this week and was of great benefit to our students in assisting them to make informed decisions about subject choices for 2017. I thank Ms Pola, Deputy Principal – Teaching and Learning and Mrs Curcio, Careers Coordinator for organising the evening and all who contributed to its success. I remind all families that the transition packages for the various year levels are due in the coming weeks. I ask all families to adhere to the timelines set to enable us to make offers to other students wanting to enrol at the College in 2017.

Condolences
We were informed earlier this week that a former long serving Loyola staff member Joan McGarry (L: 83-07) had passed away unexpectedly. Joan taught for 25 years at Loyola commencing in 1983, teaching Chemistry and other science subjects with her final years assisting in the Special Education Department. She was a much loved teacher who inspired students especially those gifted in science and, towards the end of her career, others battling with their schooling. As a colleague she was admired and highly respected as a very wise lady with genuine concern for others. We pray for her family at this difficult time. May Joan rest in peace.

In the spirit of our recent St Ignatius Feast Day celebrations, let us continue to live out this year’s theme with enthusiasm and commitment so that we can continue to accompany others on their life journey, serve others with our gifts and talents and praise God for the life and opportunities we have been given.

Grandparents’ Mass
On the morning of July 22 Father Gerry Healy SJ, our College chaplain, celebrated Mass marking the feast of St Joachim and St Anne which tradition holds are Mary’s parents and hence, the grandparents of Jesus.

This event, now in its sixth year, was booked out. Over 200 grandparents and grandchildren prayed together and then shared a morning tea served by the hospitality students.

Fr Gerry spoke about the importance of Grandparents and older people in children’s lives with the wonderful support they offer families, the wisdom they impart, the example they give of living faith filled lives and the genuine love and interest they show younger people. To the students, he emphasised the importance of saying thanks for the support and love they receive from their grandparents.

St Ignatius’ Day Mass

This year’s St Ignatius Day continued the 37 year tradition of a Jesuit celebrating Mass for the Loyola Community. We were honoured by the support of Fr Robin Koning SJ the principal celebrant and Socius to the Jesuit Provincial, Fr Gerry Healy SJ, Fr Terry Kean, parish priest of St Francis Xavier, Montmorency, representing the Diamond Valley Deanery, Fr Steven Rigo, Chair of the canonical administrators and parish priest of St Mary’s Greensborough and Fr Michael O’Connell, Co-patron of Xavier House and parish priest of St Martin of Tours, MacLeod.

Fr Koning speculated … which team would Ignatius have joined? He proceeded to make a case for each …..Team Red (Valor) – Ignatius was certainly courageous – he led the defence of Pamplona against overwhelming odds – surrender only coming after he was struck by a cannon ball. Team Blue (Mystic). Ignatius was one of the great mystics of the Church – He desired a deeply personal and intense relationship with God. Team Yellow (Instinct) Ignatius’ mode of prayer, epitomised in the Examen and the Spiritual Exercises, asks us to examine our feelings and become more aware of God’s actions in the everyday of our lives – in other words - to hone our instinct to be open to the Spirit.

Father Koning’s homily was a good example of finding God in all Things.

The St Ignatius Day Mass was a joyful Eucharistic celebration that reminded us of our call to be companions in Christ and men and women for others.

St Ignatius Day

On Friday 29 July we celebrated the most wonderful St Ignatius Day. We were so proud of the way our students went about the day and we are extremely grateful that we can celebrate our St Ignatius Feast Day with reflection, prayer, giving, fun and an enormous sense of community. Mr Favrin earlier in this newsletter thanked a number of people but I would also like to thank Mrs Pritchard, her canteen team and all the wonderful volunteers who did such an enormous job organising the lunch. I would also like to thank our maintenance and gardening teams who worked extremely hard to set up the day. It was an amazing day and we celebrated our day brilliantly.

As with the past 36 years of celebrating St Ignatius Day, our day began with a Eucharistic celebration giving thanks for the life and example of St Ignatius and thanking God for the blessings our College Community enjoys. After a short recess, the students and staff members assembled in House groups in preparation for the 8 kilometre walkathon around the Watsonia surrounds. This year the privilege of leading our students along the walkathon route was given to the members of the ACS Cross Country squad. In recognition of their celebration of their final St Ignatius Day, Year 12 students were given the privilege of dressing in colourful costumes after the Mass.

The wonderful tradition of the Loyola Parents and Friends Association (LPFA) sponsoring a free lunch for all students and staff members was continued this year. Students returned from the Walkathon hungry and thirsty keen to partake in all that the Canteen staff and parent volunteers had prepared. The lunch offerings were a wonderful smorgasbord which included pizza, pies, pasties, sausage rolls, hot dogs, burgers, souvlaki as well as a number of delicious vegetarian offerings, a variety of drinks and a selection of chocolates. The College grounds had been transformed overnight into a fun park with students having full access to a number of great rides including Dodgem Cars, the Sizzler, the Cyclone, Riptide, the Cliff Hanger, the UFO and the Rip Tide. The photo booths and the fairy floss stalls also proved very popular.

A highlight again this year was the talent and great sense of fun on show at the Loyola Talent Quest.

It was an amazing day that we were all proud to be a part of.

Fundraising

Now that we have completed our walkathon it is important that we start raising much needed funds for our House Charities. Our target is $45,000 which would be the most amazing effort. Let’s put all our efforts in to ensuring we are supporting our House Charities as much as we can.

Mrs McGarry

As Mr Favrin mentioned earlier in the newsletter Joan McGarry (L: 83-07) sadly passed away last week. I wanted to add my own personal mention of Mrs McGarry who was my Year 11 and 12 Homeroom teacher. Mrs McGarry was the most outstanding lady and had a major influence on my life. She was the most wonderful mentor and a lady I always held in the highest regard. It was Joan who instilled the Ignatian principles and traditions in me that I still hold so dear today. She was gentle, wise and giving. She epitomised Justice, Mercy and Faith. So many wonderful memories. Mrs McGarry will be sadly missed and I extend my deepest condolences to her family.

In the last school holidays two Year 11 Loyola students, Janine Mercado and Tom Kelly, along with two of our teachers, Lisa Hussey and Louise Crowe, joined students and staff from seven other Ignatian schools to participate in an annual immersion to our small neighbouring country of Timor Leste. It was a very moving experience as the following article recounts.

Janine Mercado (11 ARAS)
Thomas Kelly (11 CTFO)

The 2015 Jesuit Schools Timor Leste Immersion began on Monday, 22 June. After months of preparation the group departed Australia for Dili from 8 different schools and 4 states, representing Jesuit and Ignatian partner schools.

In Dili, we learnt about the country’s history which was extremely interesting and also important to understand what happened to this country before exploring it even further. We visited the Resistance Museum and began to understand the impact of the conflict that has taken place for so much of Timor’s history.

On the rest of this journey we visited two schools, one in Railaco and the other in Kasait. The first school Railaco, is situated in the mountains just over an hour’s drive outside of Dili and is a very small and very poor school lacking many of the basic resources we take for granted. We also visited Collegio San Ignacio de Loiola in Kasait and saw the impact of our commitment to help establish opportunities for young people in Timor. It was gratifying to see that the funds we had raised had become a concrete establishment.

Throughout the two weeks the 16 Australian students prepared lessons in English, Maths and also activities like singing and games to teach at these Timorese schools. Other activities included coffee picking, visiting a feeding program and medical centre and many other activities which involved interacting with the many other students.

The Timor-Leste Immersion was undoubtedly the most breathtaking experience for myself and the 15 other students from Jesuit schools around Australia.

The aim for the immersion was to learn about the work the Jesuits accomplished in countries far less fortunate than our own and their provision of opportunities for the marginalised, less fortunate and underprivileged.

The whole group was immediately immersed in the deep culture and Timorese way of life, as the people were all so welcoming and generous. Many Timorese people would continuously approach and welcome us to thank us all for the work the Jesuits have done. Throughout our stay in both Railaco and Kasait the students were welcoming and extremely excited to see the “Australian students” again and even held a grand welcoming ceremony with singing and dancing just for us. Any language barriers were quickly overcome through singing, games and lots of laughter. The entire immersion represents a genuine opportunity to move beyond merely talking about Christianity and the work of the Catholic church is accomplishing around the world; to actually witness it in a highly observable way and bring what you learnt back home to teach others.

Victorian State - Wide Indonesian Language Speaking Competition 2016

Two of our students made a new history for Loyola College by winning 3rd place in the Victorian State Wide Indonesian Language Speaking Competition. This competition is a collaboration between the VILTA (Indonesian Language Teachers Association), the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development and The Asia Institute – The University of Melbourne.

This year there were 1,030 students who participated in this competition in which the selection round was held in 11 districts all across Victoria, and the final round has taken place at the University of Melbourne.

Isabella Ciccone got 3rd place for Year 7 Beginning Category and Ben Berthelsen got 3rd place for Year 8 Continuing Category. Congratulations to both students!

Threat actors work behind the scenes

From the stealing of Hillary Clinton’s presidential campaign email account to some random person in cyberspace controlling your baby web cam, according to Data Protection Advisor (July 2016) “almost every significant hack begins by exploiting a weakness on an end-point device.”

Four of the major weaknesses on end-point devices are:
1. Weak passwords, eg “123456” and, worse still, using the same credentials across multiple devices;
2. Not keeping the anti-virus software on all network devices (ie not just computers, but also security cameras and printers) up to date with vendor security patches;
3. Responding to emails that look like they come from legitimate organisations such as banks, that direct the unwary user to fake websites which ask for personal login information, and
4. Visiting pirate software/movies/music or unsecured (ie no HTTPS) websites, which have been infected with malware.

Malware (malicious software) is used by threat actors (ie malicious hackers) to scrape personal data they hope to use to gain access to a user, corporation or government network. Once in they typically may take several months surreptitiously snooping around for what they want.

So be alert, but not alarmed: don’t allow threat actors to play around with your privacy, security or finances.

St Martin of Tours 60 Year Anniversary

Sunday July 24 marked the culmination of celebrations of St Martin of Tours Parish’s 60 Year Anniversary in this Year of Mercy.

Mass was celebrated by Father Michael O’Connell and Father Kevin Mogg. Also in attendance was current and past St Martin community members, in particular Trish Stewart, former Principal and Father Peter Robinson, past Parish Priest.

In attendance, representing our Xavier House was Mr and Mrs Favrin, Ms Fiona Devlin (Xavier House Head) and I (Xavier Mentor teacher)

Xavier House has enjoyed a rich relationship with St Martin of Tours welcoming many students into the whole Loyola community.

The Parish community enjoyed morning tea in the GECCO and perused the detailed, historical displays of the school and parish.

Harmony Day 15 March

This year’s Harmony Day had an indigenous Australian focus. The intention was to listen to each other’s story to journey together. This is an indigenous technique to build trust between people in order to create a more just outcome for all concerned.

The day began with a whole school Assembly in the Companions Hall where West Australian Elder ‘Big’ Al Harris addressed the College community and challenged us to build reconciliation together. As part of the assembly our two students from Nauiyu Community Daly River, NT, Louwanna Marranya and Louise Marranya-Cronin gave us a fantastic insight into what the ‘Welcome to country actually means. Following this challenging assembly students were engaged in conversations at the beginning of each lesson, around key indigenous value topics. Teachers facilitated group discussions that were aimed at allowing each student to express their points of view on topics such as time, the land, people, story and sacredness.

In addition, the day’s activities included a huge visual demonstration of relationships between people in the Loyola community. This began as a mentor activity where students linked each other’s photos with lines, developed as each House then marked out their relationships between mentors and then culminated into a huge board where students, and staff were able to link each other with pins and strings. The whole activity was designed and resourced by our VCAL department.

As per Loyola tradition we finished our celebration with a wonderful celebration of an international lunch provided by the College canteen and DJ music by former student Joseph Bruce. All together this was a major celebration of cultural diversity supported by each sector of the school.

Visit from Santa Laurensia, Indonesia

Our Indonesian language department hosted a group of twenty students and their two teachers from our Sister School in Jakarta, Santa Laurensia. The students had a wonderful time getting used to the Australian way of life and experiencing our kangaroos at Greswell park. We were treated to a wonderful Indonesian cultural dance presentation at the College Assembly.

I thank the families of our Loyola Buddies for hosting the students during their visit. Visits like this are instrumental in both building capacity in our languages program and in highlighting the importance of students engaging in and celebrating Australia’s relationship with South East Asian nations.

High Resolves - Year 8
This year our program in High Resolves has changed in its model of delivery. We have chosen to present four learning modules to Year 8. In May 23, 26 and 27 all students worked on Independent Thinking and Social Justice. These modules contained simulation games designed to enable students to develop empathy with people in different parts of the world where there is less economic opportunity. Some of the questions were quite challenging; for example, when students were given the tasks of earning money in country groups, then purchasing transport, health and housing resources for their people. Each went about their duty diligently. Only to find, at the conclusion of the activity that different countries were given distinct advantages as their currencies were worth far more than others. This reflected the reality in the world and gave cause for concern among our students in the reflection and debrief session.

The second days of Year 8 High Resolves will be held on 15, 18 and 19 August.

Visit from Maffioli hospitality group 01-26 June
We once again hosted the Maffioli hospitality tour from our sister school in the Veneto region of Italy. Six students and their teacher stayed with us in International House for four weeks of school activities, excursions and finally a 10 day professional work placement in restaurants in Melbourne. This exchange led to a rekindling of interest in Loyola students once again conducting a reciprocal exchange to Italy at the end of last year.

Students in Food technology and VET Hospitality classes were very impressed by the visitor’s abilities as training chefs and keen to learn as much as possible from them. I take this opportunity to thank the parents who hosted our visitors for a weekend during their visit.

IFTAR Dinner 15 June 2016
Mr Chris Lynch and I were invited to attend the Sirius College annual IFTAR dinner at the Sunshine Campus of the school. Sirius College is a ‘non-denominational’ school conducted in a Turkish Islamic tradition. The IFTAR dinner is taken at the breaking of fast during Ramadan and to share it with others in a mark of charity. A large range of Catholic and Independent school leaders were invited to share the meal and to engage in a panel discussion on minimizing the chance of radicalization of youth in Victorian Schools. It was a wonderful opportunity for Loyola to be involved in meaningful interfaith dialogue.

ASEAN Youth Forum 28 July
On a cold winter’s day six Year 10 Humanities students; Brooke Lennon, Maria Quadrino, Charlotte Fell, Monique Belinic, Adam Ammendola and Martin Trieu ventured into Melbourne University with Mr Roberts, for a major interschool event where 10 participating secondary schools each took a role as a country in the ASEAN (South East Asian and Australia) region in a simulated United Nations international conference. The day began with a general contextualization of the ASEAN region and the significance of Australia’s partnership in it then moved to delegate students joining three discussions aimed at creating draft resolutions for the region. The topics were trade, refugees and sustainability.

Our students gained a huge insight not only into the countries of the region but also into preparing a ‘position’ collectively and putting it up with competing member states.

New partner school in USA – Bellarmine Preparatory School
We are very excited to announce our brand new developing partnership with another overseas school. We have been in negotiations to conduct student exchange visits to and from Bellarmine Preparatory School in Tacoma in the United States. Bellarmine shares much in common with Loyola as it is a coeducational secondary school conducted in the Jesuit Educational tradition. The possibility of such an exciting exchange has come at a wonderful time as we have been able to work a five day visit to the school where students will be staying in Bellarmine students’ homes during our next USA NASA Space Camp. Students are asked to see Mr McClaer for further information about joining this tour.
STUDENT OF THE FORTNIGHT

Lara Bilotto (7 ASKC)

Lara is the student of the fortnight, as her constant determination and ability to run a chicken coop shows us that great leaders do not have to come from the older year levels.

She isn’t afraid to talk to older students, and she is very enthusiastic about her role.

Keep up the fantastic work Lara, and keep leading by example!

McAuley Services for women are still in need of bed linen, Coles vouchers and movie tickets so if you have any of these things, please drop them off to Mrs Foley-Tighe’s office.

St Ignatius day was a wonderful day for all students! The Dodgem cars were defiantly the highlight, as well as the talent show - which showed extraordinary talent this year.

Let’s not forget our charity donations and make sure we beat the tally from last year. It all goes to a great cause that allows us to help more people in need!

This edition produced by Samantha Klimovski (12 ARMB) and Tommy Ceraso (12 ARAS) of McAuley House.
Monday morning Tour
The next Monday Morning Tour will be held on Monday 29 of August from 9:15 am – 11:00 am. Bookings are essential via my contact details. The tour will include Morning Tea with our Principal, Mr Joseph Favrin.

Common Courtesy
Due to the building of our new Performing Art Centre an increase in the amount of cars in Bungay Street and neighbouring streets is unavoidable. I do ask all parents dropping their children to show courtesy to other drivers by stopping in legally allocated parking spots. Dropping your child off at the gate is not only illegal, it also causes congestion and frustration to other drivers. Please show common courtesy to others by giving way to other cars to ensure that there is a smooth flow of traffic, particularly in the morning.

P Plate drivers are also asked to take care when parking, please ensure you abide by parking restrictions and do not cover access to bins on Friday morning pick-up.

International House & Manresa Cottage
Are you moving house, renovating or expecting overseas guests and need somewhere to stay well …
Just inside Gate 4, on the corner of Bungay and Kenmare Streets sits our International House which is used for accommodation on a short term basis for both overseas visitors and members of our school and local community. Behind the Old Loyola building in the south western corner of the property, sits a quaint little Cottage that we also rent out. These rentals are ideal for family members or friends who have to attend a function or appointment in Melbourne and require an overnight stay or longer at a very reasonable price. Some of our families have extended family who live interstate and rent the cottage on a regular basis when paying a visit to Melbourne for 1 or 2 weeks. Loyola’s close proximity to shops and the train makes it ideal to be independent and yet close to relatives as well. Anyone interested in learning more should access www.loyola.vic.edu.au/information/accomodation. Or contact myself either by phone or email.

Working Bee- Saturday, 25 July
Another great turn out. Raining at 7:30am, at 8:00am the sun started to shine, it may have been a cold day, however that did not stop over 50 committed helpers. A very productive morning with various jobs completed. A morning tea shared by all and the soup was very much appreciated as the sun started to disappear. A big thank you to all that ventured out, a record number for this time of the year. Once again clearly showing the Loyola Community spirit

Grandparent Morning
A very popular event with tickets booked within 12 hours. It was so beautiful seeing the Grandparents arriving and being greeted by their grandchildren. The Chapel was nicely heated for the many that arrived. A great sense of belonging was evident as Fr Gerry Healy SJ emphasised the importance of having grandparents and acknowledging the very significant role they play in their lives. A very delicious morning tea was enjoyed by all, a big thank you to Joanne Pritchard and all the canteen ladies who provided an amazing spread of food. A thank you also to the Hospitality students who assisted with the serving of the food.

IT'S SHOWTIME!

LOYOLA PERFORMING ARTS CENTRE

Ladies and gentlemen, we invite you to sponsor a seat in our new Performing Arts Centre.

Join other members of the school community and commemorate your connection to Loyola College in the name of your family, your son or daughter, your business or in memory of a loved one.

When you sponsor a seat in the Performing Arts Centre, your support will be recognized for the lifetime of the College, with a plaque carrying your name and taking pride of place on a seat.

This fully tax deductible gift of $500 will have a seat in situ for generations of Loyola College students.

Funds raised from seat sponsorship will ensure that the new building is fully equipped with all necessary resources.

This purpose-built facility will feature tiered seating for 500 and state of the art audiovisual facilities.

The whole community is invited to be a part of this momentous project.

Construction is due for completion in September 2016 and there are limited seats available, so don’t delay!

FROM JESUIT SOCIAL SERVICES

Fr Andrew Hamilton SJ

National Homeless Persons Week: August 01-07

In many of our cities this year homeless people are more visible than usual. They put their bedding on the footpaths, congregate at night in public squares, and are more in the news. Some people demand that they be ‘moved on’; others insist that accommodation be found for them; governments and councils seek for solutions.

Many reasons are given for their greater visibility. The most obvious is that many more people are homeless. Experts point to the shortage of housing, particularly of public housing, and of affordable rental housing. This leaves people who lose their jobs or fall ill more vulnerable to homelessness.

Some homeless people themselves say that in temporary shared accommodation they are vulnerable to robbery and violence. Young people with whom we work at Jesuit Social Services have often left violent or neglectful homes. They also lack the opportunities that might open the way to education and work. So they find themselves homeless in the city, at risk of exploitation and addiction.

People who are homeless are also beginning to organise. This encourages their self-respect and pride, counteracts the shame homelessness can bring and makes them refuse invisibility. They come together at night for protection and demand long-term housing as a right, not as a privilege. When we see homelessness as a problem it can seem intractable. But if we see the faces of people who are homeless, as this week encourages us to do, it all becomes simple. In a wealthy society like ours people who are homeless have a right to shelter for themselves and their families. It is essential for their self-respect. So it must be provided.

To address the needs of people who are homeless we must first ask them how they came to be on the streets and what forces them to stay there. Their answers will be various. They will speak of a violent and neglected childhood, of the lack of opportunity to learn or work, of addiction and ill fortune, of the lack of emergency accommodation and of money.

It is easy to walk past people who are evidently homeless, to avoid their eyes and eventually not to notice them. It is a little harder to drop money in their tin as we pass by. We may find it a little harder still to stop and chat, interested to hear their story and tell our own. But only when we do that do we see them as people like ourselves. Something may then change in them and in ourselves, and so finally in society.
