Dear Members of the Loyola College Community,

As we approach the half way mark of this term, College life continues to be busy as we witness the many activities and important events that have taken place in the last fortnight.

Winter Sleep Out
Congratulations to the senior students who participated in the winter sleep out last week. Raising awareness of the plight of the marginalised and the poor is necessary if we are to change society values and live out our faith to improve the quality of life for others. I thank Mr Lynch (Deputy Principal ~ Ignatian Mission and Identity) for overseeing the organisation and all the staff who assisted with the supervision of the students.

Maths, Science and Book Weeks
In the last few weeks we have celebrated Maths, Science and Book Week with a range of events and activities for the students. I thank Mr Lynch. Acting Head of Mathematics, Mr Lee, Acting Head of Science and Mrs Do, Head of the Learning Resources and their respective staff for their efforts in promoting these important curriculum areas and raising awareness of their importance.

Year 11 Leadership Day
On Tuesday of last week a special Leadership Day was held for our Year 11 students to enable them to consider both their role as leaders in Year 12 next year and their commitment to becoming specific student leaders in 2018. Students were presented with the model of Servant Leadership as the best model suited in a Catholic school. Students were challenged to consider what it means for them to be a leader in an Ignatian school. I am confident that we will have many wonderful Year 12 leaders from this group next year. I thank Mrs Salmic who oversaw the running of leadership program this year.

A day in the Life of Loyola College
On Thursday of last week the College ran a program for the Year 4 students in our feeder Catholic primary schools. All seven Catholic schools were invited to attend and we thank the six schools who were able to accept our invitation: Our Lady of the Way, Kingsbury, St Thomas the Apostle, North Greensborough, Sacred Heart, Diamond Creek, St Francis of Assisi, Mill Park, St Damian's, Bundoora and St Martin of Tours in Rosanna.

The children had a wonderful morning and were able to see a secondary school in action, attend some classes and complete some activities as well as meet some of the children who had previously attended their own school and learn more about Loyola College. The College feels that such experiences help the children in their transition to secondary school regardless of where their families decide to send them. We are very pleased to be able to offer this experience to the children of our feeder Catholic primary schools. I thank Mrs Crowe (Student Programs Coordinator, Years 7 – 9) for overseeing the organisation of this event.

ACS Cross Country
On a drizzly and wet Monday this week our students competed in the annual ACS Cross country event held at Bundoora Park. We commend our Loyola team for their efforts in preparing for the day and their involvement in this event. Our team came 4th in the event with two first place winners amongst the boys. I thank Mr Langford, Ms Hussey and Mr Baxter (Director of Sport) for preparing the team.

Last week the Church celebrated the feast of the Assumption recalling that Mary, the mother of Jesus was taken into heaven body and soul. This feast day honours Mary for the role she played in saying yes to God in accepting to become the mother of our Lord. Mary willingly accepted God’s plan for her and trusted fully in that plan despite many obstacles. In saying ‘yes’ to God she enabled God’s plan to bring Jesus into the world. We believe that God has a plan for each one of us and that we can realise that plan through listening to God speak to us in prayer and through the world around us. We are invited to say our ‘yes’ to God if only we are prepared to listen to Him speaking to us in our hearts.

St Ignatius had a great affection for Mary and he often prayed to her for the strength to do God’s will so as to fulfil God’s plan for him. He found great comfort in seeking her intercession. May we do the same.

May Mary continue to be our guide, our Heavenly Mother, and show us the way to loving Jesus more deeply in our lives.

Grade Six Ignatian Induction Evening
Each year Loyola hosts an Ignatian Induction Evening for the following year’s Year Seven students and their parents. There are separate programs for the students and their parents.

The students are placed into small groups and our Year 11 Youth Ministry students run activities for them. This is part of the Year 11 students’ leadership training. They design and run icebreaker games, conduct a getting to know you session, introduce the Grade Six students to the life of St Ignatius and why he is the patron saint of the College.

Meanwhile the parents meet each other, discuss the hopes they have for their children and compare these with Loyola’s Ignatian ethos. The parents also learn about the Ignatian foundation of the College and come to know the story of St Ignatius a little more deeply.

Both groups finish the evening with the prayer of the Examen, the prayer St Ignatius encouraged his companions to pray regularly.

This evening highlights the centrality of the Ignatian ethos in the life of the College. It helps form our Year 11 students to be men and women for others and is an important part of the transition process for our incoming Year Sevens and their parents.
Current funding situation for Catholic schools

In the final days of last term, the Turnbull Government’s Gonski 2.0 education funding package was rammed through the Parliament after virtually no consultation with the Catholic school sector and less than eight weeks of public scrutiny.

Although the proposals are now law, there is still a great deal of uncertainty about what the changes will mean for individual schools. However, here are some key points to remember about the funding debate:

- Leaked figures from the federal Education Department show that the changes the Government has made to the funding model will leave Catholic schools across Australia $4.6 billion worse off over the next decade.
- Despite the Government’s claims to the contrary, Education Minister Simon Birmingham held just one meeting with Catholic education officials before releasing the package. The content and timing of the Government’s funding proposals were not discussed at this meeting.
- The final funding package includes discriminatory measures that will result in Catholic schools across Australia receiving $1.1 billion less funding over the next decade, when compared to similar independent schools. This is because they are part of a school system. Senator Birmingham has been unable to say if this penalty is deliberate, or an unintended consequence of his haste to pass the package.
- The changes do not treat school sectors fairly or measure need accurately, with funding arrangements that are biased against Catholic schools in favour of wealthy independent schools.

Ultimately, Minister Birmingham’s policy fails the tests of honesty, fairness, consistency and integrity.

At the same time, it is important to note that pressure from Catholic school communities has resulted in amendments to the original proposals and some key concessions. Chief among these has been a decision by the Government to keep existing Catholic system funding arrangements in place for 12 months while a review of the school Socio-Economic Status – or SES – score methodology is carried out. SES scores are the most important variable in school funding. These are biased against Catholic schools and deliver large windfall funding gains to wealthy independent schools.

This means that, thanks to your efforts, there will not be significant fee increases in the short term.

The SES score review gives the Turnbull Government an opportunity to make changes to the new funding arrangements that will tackle many of the concerns of Catholic education.

As parents with children at a school in the federal electorate of Jagajaga, it’s important to remember that your local Senator, Scott Ryan, voted in favour of the new funding policy that will see Catholic schools $4.6 billion worse off over the next decade.

There is now a clear difference between the Turnbull Government and the Labor opposition on funding for Catholic schools. If Labor were to win the next election, which could be held as early as next spring, many of the misgivings held by Catholic education about the new funding policy would be resolved.

We are enormously grateful for all the hard work by parents and school communities to get us to this point.

Catholic education will continue to advocate vigorously for funding arrangements that ensure parental choice in education and the continued affordability and accessibility of a quality education founded on the Catholic faith and its values.
Two Loyola Year 11 students will have the opportunity to be part of the Jesuit Partner Schools East Timor Immersion Project to be held in June/July 2018.

Loyola has sent representatives for many years to this. For many this is a life changing experience.

The immersion is a wonderful opportunity to broaden the students’ world-view and be part of a unique cultural experience. They will develop relationships with young people from other parts of Australia and the world. The immersion will give the students a deeper understanding of the issue of poverty and globalisation. They will see the work of the Jesuits, practical examples of the Ignatian charism and the contribution governments and other organisations make in advancing the community.

The students will develop an appreciation of the richness of other cultures and be presented with a challenge to use their gifts and talents to help others.

The students will visit and work in our sister school, Colégio Santo Inácio de Loiola (Loyola), in Kasait, just outside Dili. Our College supports this school. The immersion is an opportunity to further develop the relationship.

Why an Immersion

“Immerse” means to plunge into; to be involved deeply.

Therefore it requires a thorough preparation and:

- being involved with another culture for a length of time that will allow for a more complete understanding of cultural differences.
- experiencing a different way of living and working with other young people from around Australia.
- having a standard of accommodation referenced by and considerate of, the standard of the community being visited.
- working alongside people who are fighting the injustices of the society being visited – as much as possible this would be with the Jesuits, but it may include other NGO’s or individuals.
- reflecting on the experiences of the day and seeking ways to find God in our lives and the lives of those we meet.
- doing more than just visit the designated area as tourists.

It is expected that students taking part will make a significant contribution to the mission of the College when they return. Students will participate in preparation meetings and on-line and follow up activities.

The draft itinerary:
27 – 29 June: Dili.
30 June– 02 July: Railaco
03 July - 07 July: Dili
Dates and places may vary slightly

Cost
The immersion is subsidized by the College with a cost to the student of $1600 and the student will be required to participate in fundraising that will be used to assist the East Timorese people. The Loyola student body will help with this.

Applications
Applications are due on Monday, 11 September. Students need to write to Mr Favrin, stating the reasons why they should be selected as Loyola’s representatives for the East Timor Immersion.

POSITIVELY IMPACTING OUR COMMUNITY

Name: Mr Trevor Robertson
Role: Teacher
Story:
Mr Robertson is the founding president of the St John’s Netball club and is organising this program for the students of parishioners from St Johns in Heidelberg.

Mr Robertson doesn’t have a daughter and therefore, is purely undertaking this initiative for others. Following in St Ignatius’ footsteps in being men and women for others.

Many hours have been dedicated to organising this program for his community so that the club can be successful and the students/parishioners have a positive experience, creating a community that thrives.

Musicians Needed!
We are always looking for young budding musicians and/or singers to be part of the weekend Masses at St Marys, Greensborough.

Our Mass times are: Saturday - 6:30pm and Sunday - 8:00am, 10:00am and 5:00pm.

We are not seeking anyone to permanently commit, but rather from time to time when a student’s commitments permit to bring a youth perspective into our Masses where we can all learn from each other.

All our musicians have a WWC card. This would be a voluntary position and please be assured of a very warm welcome.

Year 10 to 12 Subject Specific Interviews
The final Year 12 Academic Conversation will take place on September 7 (3:45 – 8:00 pm) in the Loyola Companion Hall. This will be your final formal opportunity to discuss your child’s progress prior to the final examinations.

The Year 7 – 9 Academic Conversations will be held on October 12 (3:45 – 7:15 pm). Letters outlining the booking system will be sent to parents and guardians later this term.

Unit 4 Trial Examinations
All students studying a Unit 4 subject will have a VCAA examination. As preparation for these final examinations, at Loyola College we run Trial examinations in all subjects over three days in the Term Three holidays. The students will receive a copy of their Trial Examination schedule via their school email commencing the week of August 21. The Trial Examinations commence on Friday 28 September and conclude on Tuesday 03 October. This schedule allows enough time to prepare for the Trial examinations, as well as undertake other revision for their subjects. Parents and guardians will receive an individual statement of Trial examination results following the correction of all papers. This report will be sent out on October 13.

Educational Growth Mindset
In keeping with Loyola College’s commitment to Positive Psychology through an Ignatian Lens, our Heads of Learning looked at ways to further developing our student’s educational growth mindset. After extensive research, discernment and conversations with our student body, it was decided that in 2017 students at Years 7 - 9 at Loyola College will be given the option to re-submit assessment work (not exams) if the final mark falls below 55%.

If a Year 7 – 9 student has achieved below 55% for a school assessed course work by following the assessment criteria and submitting a meaningful attempt of the assessment work, a Letter of Concern will be sent home. Subject Teachers will then notify using the Letter of Concern the availability of the option. Resubmission of work timeframe will be set by Subject Teacher. Please be mindful that this initiative is about student learning growth and improving outcomes. Growth occurs when our students have been active participants in the learning process.

If a student decides to take up the option of re-submission, contact will need to be made with the Subject Teacher in a timely manner. It is important to make that connection with the Teacher for a number of reasons. Firstly, to enable a conversation based around learning between the Subject Teacher and student. Secondly, to improve learning outcomes and look at where the assessment criteria was not met and how best to meet this. And finally, for the conversation then to translate into improved learning outcomes for any future endeavours. Once the re-submitted work has been re-marked the maximum possible achievement level for that piece will be 55%. This will be denoted on the report as an ‘R’ on the report and automatically adjusted in their Overall Mark.

At Loyola College we believe learning is an ongoing process and that academic conversations need not end once an assessment piece is submitted. If a student wishes to take up the offered option of re-submission a conversation of between themselves and their Subject Teacher needs to occur. This conversation will focus on making sure that any missed conceptions and misconceptions are cleared up prior to re-submission to ensure a better outcome. The onus is on the student to collect the assessment piece, make a time with their Subject Teacher to go over the work and re-submit within the set time frame. Please encourage your student to take the option of re-submission.

Do you enjoy meeting people and being a part of keeping the community safe?

STUDENT OF THE FORTNIGHT

Ellie Glover (8 FSPS)

To Ellie Glover, for her tremendous and selfless support and contribution to Flynn House, especially in fundraising events such as the Biggest Morning Tea, in which she assisted with set-up, selling and pack-up. Ellie is someone who constantly puts up her hand to give her time to help her peers and the House, and we thank her for her contribution and her natural born leadership skills.

FROM THE STUDENTS

Olivia Mitchell (12 FJBE) & Jacob De Leo (12 FSPS)

Whilst this term hasn’t been as jam packed as previous terms, there are still so many things to be grateful for and to celebrate within Flynn House and key dates to take note of. Each year level in Flynn really stepped up during Cross Country which occurred a couple of weeks ago, scoring Flynn House the Cross Country shield! Whilst we were not there to accept it, we are extremely proud of each and every student who participated, especially those who received medals. Another major event that just passed on the Loyola calendar was St.Ignatius Day, which saw all the students in the school enjoy rides, food, music and fun. This day was especially important to our school as it was in celebration of our patron, St.Ignatius of Loyola and began the fundraising for our house charities. Remember to donate a minimum of $20 to your mentors! In support of Flynn’s efforts in raising money for the amazing charity, St.Vincent De Paul, we are running a cake stall on three separate days. These days are Monday 21 of August, Monday 28 of August and Monday September 04 at the flag poles at lunchtime. Each Flynn student is expected to either bake some goods or help sell at the stall.

On a final positive note, we have been seeing strong inter-level relationships during mentor times and are so thrilled at how the students are setting aside their electronics and coming together every morning. Thank you and we hope you enjoy the final part of 2017!

This year has been absolutely full on!!

We have had so many events and shows throughout the year, such as The Production of "The Wizard of Oz" and "House Eisteddfod"! I therefore reiterate that at Loyola Collage there is a continuously rising benchmark, which continues to exceed every year!

As we are coming to the end of this hectic year, we only have one last major showcase left!!

I can promise you, that this will make your eyes weep for joy and your emotions will be overwhelmed with obsession of the absolute cuteness, as the Junior Years from Years 7-9 show off what they can do!! Directed by Ms Vanda Tolli and Ms Lara Thompson, guiding the world of "Collection of Classics" (famous musical theatre numbers).

Please come along and support our junior students! Be a witness to their amazing and unique talents. It’s on November 17 in the MPAC.

We also have a SHOWCASE!!

On September 19 and 21, the VCE Year 12 Performing Arts students will be under the microscope in a first VCE Showcase! All senior students will be performing their own Monologues and Solo Performances!

From Drama, Theatre, Music and Dance, all our students will perform a high VCE standard performance. This gives our Senior students an opportunity to show off all their talents, skill and level of hard work! Once again details are: September 19 and 21 in the MPAC at 6:30pm

Caroline Chisholm Society visit to Loyola
The Chisholm House staff and students gathered together on Monday 07 August to hear from Ms Helen Cooney, CEO of the Caroline Chisholm Society, which is the House Charity for Chisholm at Loyola. Helen has been visiting Loyola for many years, speaking with the students about the wonderful work and assistance that the Society provides to young mothers, children and their families who are unable to make ends meet when starting out on the path of parenthood.

This year, the students were shown a presentation of the Society’s new premises in Essendon that opened in March this year, as well as the many grateful women and children who have benefitted from their services. As the Chisholm House community of staff and students, we commit to continue our partnership in the future as we collect funds and baby goods for some of the most vulnerable in our wider Melbourne community.

Thanks to our wonderful Chisholm House staff, students and families for your continued generosity and support!

Chisholm Debaters – Champions!
Congratulations to Chisholm House debaters from Years 7 to 12 who took home the overall champions shield on Monday 14 August.

Their tireless efforts in preparation, attendance and practice have certainly paid off. A well-deserved victory by all students involved!

A special thank you to Mrs Miriam Stylli who kept the team motivated, prepared and up for the challenge throughout the whole debating season.

We are more than just organic behaviour
From the movie Bicentennial Man, starring the late Robin Williams, to Terminator with Arnold Schwarzenegger, to iRobot, starring Will Smith, machines that can think for themselves have simultaneously both captured our imagination and terrified us.

This month TED Talk featured Marc Raibert, Robotics Engineer, showing off just how far robotics have come and how close we are to making iRobot a reality. Have a look at this entertaining and enlightening video, titled ‘Meet Spot, the robot dog that can run, hop and open doors’. In the video Marc mentions his ‘religion’ as being the methodology he employs to simulate ‘organic behaviour’; namely: taking into consideration not only the computer and how the software controls the robot, but also how the robot interacts with the physical world.

It is clear from the video that robots will be quite capable of replacing humans with menial tasks, e.g. factory assembly lines and parcel delivery, but also taking care of our the elderly when they are old and frail. I am not so sure about this latter assertion, as how would a software engineer encode compassion, empathy and the sharing of a warm embrace?

In 2014 a philosopher and technologist by the name of Nick Bostrom, in another TED Talk titled ‘What happens when our computers get smarter than we are?’, considers those characteristics that make us distinctly human, certainly characteristics that go beyond Raibert's definition of ‘organic behaviour’. These include all the things that humans hold dear, such as having an appreciation of what is beautiful, having a moral compass to guide our decisions and our spirituality or belief in God. Bostrom calls the process of coding for these important characteristics in the robotics software ‘value loading’.

Bostrom predicts that by 2040-2050 Artificial Intelligence (AI) will have overtaken the creative intelligence of humans, pointedly asserting that as soon as that happens, that will be the last invention humans will ever have to make! Without ‘value loading’, however, how can humankind be sure that what AI creates will actually be good for us?

Let us hope AI software engineers and the corporations and governments that bankroll their work take heed of Bostrom's warning.

Timor Leste Immersion 2017
On June 26 to July 10, Victoria Kantaras, Renee Shannon and I went on a JASCA immersion tour to Timor Leste. During this period together with students from other Jesuit schools, we spent time at various historical and culturally significant sites in Dili, the school communities at Kasait and Railaco and participating in community ministries that the Jesuits ran in the surrounding areas of Kasait and Railaco.

In Dili, we visited sites such as the Motael Church (oldest Catholic Church in the country and site of the procession that led to the Dili Massacre), the Santa Cruz Cemetery (site of the massacre), the Resistance Museum and Max Stahl Film Archive, the Tais Markets, and the Jesuit Residence and Jesuit Communications facilities in Taibesi. These encounters provided students with a practical awareness of the history and culture of the Timorese people, and of the role the Jesuits play in their ministry there.

During this immersion period, many valuable friendships were made. This period gave a an immense insight to the poverty that existed in our closest neighbour to Australia and an appreciation of the abundance that is enjoyed in our lives in Australia, our ability to access a fantastic education and the opportunities that are associated with this. This immersion also gave us the time to think about the spirituality of our Ignatian tradition of service, through the activities though the Jesuit Ministries and the daily attendance of Mass and daily practice of the Examen.
Hi everyone.

There will be a Youth Mass held on Sunday 27th August.

Where: St Martin of Tours Parish
When: On the 27th August
Time: 10am

After Mass, there will be some light refreshments held in the GECCO.

Youth Mass offers youth people to lead and take ownership of the Mass.

There will be roles for young people to be involved within the Mass.

It will be exciting to see young people being involved in many aspects of the Mass.

This is a chance to get to know other youth who are part of St. Martins...

Bring your friends along too... pass on the word
Hope to see you all there!!

Poetry Slam Competition
Recently, four of our Year 9 Loyola College girls; Natalie Balloch, Celine Direk, Juliette Iemmolo and Mikayla Milan represented our College in the ‘Outloud’ Poetry Slam competition.

It was held at The Wheeler Centre in the Melbourne CBD. They performed their slam poem, “Because That’s What Society Told Us”. It was a highly competitive event involving schools from across the state of Victoria.

I wish to commend the girls on their performance. It was a wonderfully positive day that saw the best and brightest use the power of poetry to challenge and confront issues that affect not only our young people of today but broader society. I can be confident in saying that those gathered at the event felt that the future of our local and global community is in compassionate and intelligent hands.

Primary-Secondary Link Program
On Wednesday August 16 Loyola College hosted the visit of 270 students from 5 Catholic primary schools: St Damian’s Bundoora, St Mary’s Greensborough, Sacred Heart Diamond Creek, St Martin’s Rosanna and Our lady of the Way Kingsbury. Capably guided by three of our Year 7 BLGs, the program provided a fun activity-based introduction to secondary school life. Students started the day in the wonderful space of the Inigo Theatre and then were organised into 15 ‘country’ groups with each group led by Year 7 students. There were lots of warm-up activities to help students get to know each other and become more comfortable in the unfamiliar environment of a large school.

Our Year 7 students also led the primary students on a ‘locker-run’ to show them how to organise and manage a locker. Students discussed the secondary school timetable and how students need to be organised for classes each day.

We look forward to the next session of the program on Wednesday 30 August. In this session our Year 7 students will lead the primary students in roleplays about adapting to secondary school. Our Year 9 drama students have also created an interactive performance about transition to secondary school for the visiting students. This program recognises that collaboration within and across schools is integral to improving the transition of students.

Positive Education

Positive Education is a transformation in the way we approach pastoral care in a learning environment and prepare our students for a lifelong journey of learning and flourishing beyond Loyola College. Within this process we encourage and assist our students to grow into pupils of resilience and adaptability, strengthen their relationships, build positive emotions, promote mindfulness as well as promote the analysis of meaning in their lives.

Research shows that happy children perform better academically as well as, decreases stress, anxiety, increases self-esteem and optimism.

Positive Education not only provides our students with academic excellence but also with skills for happiness. It assists students in understanding their individual character strengths, learning styles, adopt a growth mindset, and improves their relationships with others. Multiple studies have demonstrated that the skills required to increase resilience, positive emotion, engagement and meaning may be taught to school students.

At Loyola College Positive Education and wellbeing has been implemented through a whole school approach which not only improves the wellbeing of staff and students but also, the wider community. This approach improves the quality of education our teachers are able to offer.

As part of promoting and embedding Positive Education at Loyola the Magis Group – Promotions and Communications sub-committee have developed our school branding which will soon become familiar to our community. A special thank you to Mrs Sarah Phipps for her fantastic work on our logo. Furthermore, we will be implementing a fortnightly paragraph in the Ignatian which will provide our community with examples of Loyola staff or students positively impacting our community. Please find our first edition on page six of this bulletin.

Ex-Loyola Student
Emilia Sterjova (L: 09-14)

Loyola College and the Loyola Ex-Student Association (LEXSA) take great pride in celebrating the further academic and professional achievements of our ex-students. Emilia Sterjova began Year 7 at Loyola College in 2009 and while participating in a number of Co-Curricular activities including various ACS sports and College Musicals, Emilia displayed an interest in public speaking and debating from Year 7. Having competed in various levels of public speaking and debating including DAV Debating, House Debating, House Public Speaking and external public speaking, Emilia earned herself a position on the College Committee; being appointed Captain of Public Speaking in 2014.

Emilia is currently combining her university studies with an interesting career in local politics, earning herself the standing as the youngest ever councillor to work for the City of Whittlesea. The Loyola College community would like to congratulate Emilia on her achievements and wish her well in her career in local politics.

The following article has been extracted from Emilia’s Facebook page. If you would like to follow her journey please visit this link, https://www.facebook.com/search/top/?q=cr%20emilia%20lisa%20sterjova%20-%20city%20of%20whittlesea

About Cr Emilia Lisa Sterjova
Cr Emilia Lisa Sterjova was first elected as a City of Whittlesea Councillor in November 2016 and is our youngest ever councillor. As a Mernda resident Cr Sterjova is a passionate local advocate for improving key transport and road infrastructure within the municipality. She is also passionate about improving youth services and providing greater support to local community groups and clubs. Cr Sterjova sits on Council’s Arts Cultural and Sporting Grants Program for Young People Committee and is a delegate for Whittlesea Youth Commitment and is currently completing a Bachelor of Laws/Bachelor of International Relations and a Diploma in Indonesian.
