

Loyola College

Child Safety Code of Conduct

Central to the mission and vision of Loyola College is an unequivocal commitment to fostering the dignity, self-esteem and integrity of children and young people and providing them with a safe, supportive and enriching environment to develop spiritually, physically, intellectually, emotionally and socially.

This Code of Conduct has a specific focus on safeguarding children and young people at Loyola College against sexual, physical, psychological and emotional abuse or neglect. It is intended to complement child protection legislation, school policies/procedures and professional standards, codes or ethics as these apply to all staff and personnel within our Loyola Community.

All staff, volunteers, contractors, clergy and College Board members at Loyola are expected to actively contribute to a school culture that respects the dignity of its members and affirms the Gospel values of love, care for others, compassion, justice and mercy. They are required to observe child-safe principles and expectations for appropriate behaviour towards and in the company of children, as outlined below.

Acceptable Behaviours

All staff, volunteers, contractors, clergy and College Board members are responsible for supporting the safety of children by:

- adhering to the College's child-safe policy and upholding the College's statement of commitment to child safety at all times
- taking all reasonable steps to protect children from abuse
- treating everyone in the College Community with respect (modelling positive and respectful relationships and acting in a manner that sustains a safe, educational and pastoral environment) and adhering to our Positive Relationship policy.
- listening and responding to the views and concerns of children, particularly if they are telling you that they or another child have been abused or that they are worried about their safety/the safety of another child
- promoting the cultural safety, participation and empowerment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children (for example, by never questioning an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander child's self-identification)
- promoting the cultural safety, participation and empowerment of children with culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds
- promoting the safety, participation and empowerment of children with a disability
- ensuring as far as practicable that adults are not alone with a child (adhering to the Strategies and Procedures document.)
- reporting any allegations of child abuse to the college's leadership.
- understanding and complying with all reporting obligations as they relate to mandatory reporting and reporting under the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic.)
- reporting any child safety concerns to the College leadership.
- ensuring as quickly as possible that children are safe, if an allegation of child abuse is made.

Unacceptable behaviours

All staff, volunteers, contractors, clergy and College Board members are responsible for supporting the safety of children and must not:

- ignore or disregard any suspected or disclosed child abuse
- develop any 'special' relationships with children that could be seen as favoritism (for example, the offering of gifts or special treatment for specific children)
- exhibit behaviours with children which may be construed as unnecessarily physical (for example, inappropriate sitting on laps)
- put children at risk of abuse (for example, by locking doors)
- initiate unnecessary physical contact with children or do things of a personal nature that a child can do for themselves, such as toileting or changing clothes
- engage in open discussions of a mature or adult nature in the presence of children (for example, personal social activities)
- use inappropriate language in the presence of children
- express personal views on cultures, race or sexuality in the presence of children
- discriminate against any child, including discriminating on the basis of age, gender, race, culture, vulnerability, sexuality, ethnicity or disability
- have contact with a child or their family outside of the College without the College leadership's knowledge and/or consent or the college governing authority's approval (for example, unauthorized after-hours tutoring, private instrumental/other lessons or sport coaching); accidental contact, such as seeing people in the street, is appropriate
- have any online contact with a child (including by social media, email, instant messaging etc.) or their family (unless necessary e.g. by providing families with newsletters or assisting students with their school work)
- use any personal communication channels/device such as a personal email account
- exchange personal contact details such as phone number, social networking sites or email addresses
- photograph or video a child without the consent of the parent or guardians
- work with children while under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs
- consume alcohol or drugs at school or at school events in the presence of children.
